COMES NOW ALISHA WAITE, PROBATION OFFICER OF THE COURT, presenting an official report upon the conduct and attitude of Harley Davis, who was placed on supervision by the Honorable William K. You must participate in a mental health program approved by the United States Probation Office. You shall contribute to the cost of services rendered in an amount to be determined by the probation officer based on ability to pay or the availability of third party payment.

You must submit your person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. Section §1030(e)(1)), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, or office, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. You must warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that you have violated a condition of supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.

You must participate in substance abuse treatment, which may include a substance abuse assessment with a licensed substance abuse provider and abide by any programmatic treatment recommendations. This program may include testing to determine whether you have reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol. You shall contribute to the costs of services rendered based on ability to pay or the availability of third-party payment. You must refrain from the use of alcohol and other intoxicants during and after treatment.

Upon release from custody, you are to be placed in the care and custody of your grandparents until such time as the Probation Officer deems it no longer appropriate.

You must participate in treatment programs sponsored by Howard Center in St. Albans beginning immediately.

You must participate in educational programs with the objective of you obtaining your high school diploma or GED.
